Alternatives Master

6 Nov 2026

The Alternatives Masters class dives deeper into the world of alternative investments, including private markets, hedge funds and insurance linked securities. The course is held as a series of topical webinars, case studies and assignments, addressing the technicalities of different alternative asset classes. It is assumed that the participants are already familiar with the fundamentals of alternatives before they join the course. For a detailed course description go to: www.nosco.training/course/am
